

The Climax-Madisonian.

We Stand for the Purity of Home, the Supremacy of Law and the Relief of a Tax-burdened People.

OLD VOL. 41—NEW VOL. 2

RICHMOND, MADISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1915

THE WEATHER
Cooler

NUMBER 40

OUR CIRCULATION IN RICHMOND AND MADISON COUNTY IS EQUAL TO THE COMBINED CIRCULATION OF ALL OTHER COUNTY PAPERS

ALL THE NEWS —AT— MINIMUM COST

The Climax-Madisonian

By Mail (weekly)
FOR FOUR MONTHS

25 cts

This offer is open to NEW subscribers only, and is made with the view of inducing those who have not been readers of this paper to "get acquainted" with us.

Limited To New Families

Do It Today

HAS NEW LEASE ON LIFE DOYLE SAYS

Declares Tanlac Relieved Him of Indigestion and Sluggishness.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5.—M. J. Doyle, of 1127 West Jefferson street, this city, says Tanlac taught him to relish his food after he supposed he had lost his appetite permanently. Mr. Doyle is a route man for the Adams Express Company.

"My digestion was all out of shape," he said recently. "It got to be so bad that I ate almost nothing, and didn't enjoy what I did eat. After a meal I felt worse than I had before. Warm weather made me feel listless and no account but in cold weather, and especially in damp weather, I was subject to bad colds."

"I dragged along with my work in a half-hearted way. My nerves were in a bad shape. I didn't sleep well."

"In the course of my business it was suggested to me several times that I try Tanlac, and I decided to do it. The first bottle did me a world of good, and now I feel as though I had a new lease on life. I am glad to tell others how much good this remarkable medicine has done me, in the hope that others may derive as much benefit from it as I have."

Tanlac, the peerless preparation, can now be obtained in Richmond at Perry's drug store.—adv.

KENTUCKY CHURCH GOES ON RECORD

Northern Methodist's Conference Votes Unanimously for Suffrage Without Debate.

The following telegram came the afternoon of September 4 to the president of Kentucky Equal Rights' Association: "Covington, Ky. The Kentucky Methodist Episcopal Conference in session in Covington voted this morning to endorse woman suffrage. It went through without debate and was unanimous. (Signed) Mrs. Chas. Firth."

This is the Conference of the Northern Methodists. This church granted "full rights" to women in the days of Frances Willard, a privilege which the Southern Methodist Church still refuses to the noble women in its ranks. "Lay rights" means simply the right to participate in a vote in the councils for church government and for the management of foreign and home missions, so large a part of the work for which is done by women. The Northern Methodist Church has in many States of the Union endorsed woman suffrage. The request that the Kentucky M. E. Conference endorse the principle of woman suffrage, as one important to the moral development and improvement of the State, was made by the members of the board of the Kentucky Equal Rights' Association.

CAMPAIGN BOOK OUT.

Democratic Guide Book Contains Valuable Data. Copies Sent To All Speakers.

The Democratic campaign book for 1915 is out and copies of it have been mailed from the headquarters at the Galt House, Louisville, to prominent Democrats in all parts of Kentucky. The first batch went to those who are taking the stump that they may have at hand the abundant material contained in the book to help them in preparing their speeches.

The book contains the record of the Democratic and Republican parties in both State and nation and gives first hand information concerning the stewardship of the Democrats. No facts are left out which will be valuable to show the contrast between the two parties in the management of State affairs and even the platforms of both parties for many years past are set forth. Particular stress is laid upon Republican extravagance.

Five speeches are contained in the book, being printed in full. They are the speeches of the gubernatorial candidate, A. O. Stanley, at Glasgow, on September 20, and his speech at Louisville on the subject of good roads, delivered on September 16; the speech of Senator Ollie James at the State Convention and the convention speeches of Hon. H. V. McDermott and Hon. H. V. McChesney, also delivered at the State Convention.

Among the issues discussed in the book, either in the platform of 1915, which is taken up section by section, or in speeches on taxation, the condition of the treasury, good roads, schools, "in view of government," public utilities, corrupt practices and franchises.

Stanley's personal and political record is covered in full. A good deal of space in the book is devoted to a description of his career as a public man and what he has accomplished in the State and in the halls of Congress at Washington. The book contains 196 pages and is bound in convenient form.

For Sale.

Two good residence lots in the Shadwick addition.

G. E. LILLY.

Judge Benton Testifies.

Judge James M. Benton, who directed the investigation by the grand jury into election frauds in the primary of last August, which he declared, in his charge to be the most corrupt in the history of the county, was himself a witness to the grand jury last week. He was before the inquisitors for fully an hour, at Winchester.

Champ Clark Can't Come.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the National Ho use of Representatives, has written to the Democratic State campaign managers here regretting that it will be impossible for him to come to Kentucky to make speeches for the ticket in the pending campaign. Speaker Clark explains that chautauqua engagements, made months ago, take up all his available time and that as much as he would like to come to his native State and raise his voice for his devoted friend, Owlesley Stanley, for Governor, he has no choice in the matter, but to fill the lecture engagements he is under contract for.

President Wilson May Come To Kentucky.

The Democratic managers in Louisville have been informed that if it is possible for him to get away from Washington, President Wilson will come to Kentucky and make one speech for Stanley. An invitation was extended to him by Senator James and the President told Senator James that he was keenly interested in the race Stanley is making and wanted to do everything in his power to help him. This is an unusually busy time with the President, and he naturally could not make a definite promise at the time Senator James called on him. He has promised, however, that if he can't make a speech for his coming to Kentucky to make a speech, he would write a letter, which would leave no doubt in the mind of anyone to the strong personal regard he has for Stanley.

Judge Gilbert To Run.

It is currently reported that Judge Ralph W. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, has definitely determined to make the race for Congress in the Eighth district. It is said he will not make formal announcement of his candidacy, however, until after the November election. When that is over he proposes to begin an active campaign for the Democratic nomination and prosecute it vigorously until the issue has been definitely settled in the primary. Judge Gilbert is a son of the late Hon. G. G. Gilbert, who so ably represented the Eighth district in Congress for a number of years.

Try It Once

FAILS TO SATISFY UNITED STATES

New German Note on Arabic Case Held Disappointing.

LANSING CONFERRED WITH WILSON

Latest Berlin Communication, It is Stated, Covers Merely One More Step In the Way to a Complete Settlement of the Submarine Controversy—German Ambassador Still Optimistic.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Following his receipt of a note from the German government on the submarine issue, handed him by the German ambassador, Secretary Lansing had a conference with President Wilson. The conference between the president and Mr. Lansing covered in a general way all developments of the last two weeks bearing on the foreign affairs of the United States. The expectation is that for several days now the issue with Germany will receive once more the earnest consideration of the White House and the state department, while a decision as to the next step is being worked out.

There are indications that an attempt will be made shortly on the negotiations now under way between the United States and German governments in complete secrecy. It is known that this is the desire of the German ambassador, who feels that the prospects of a speedy and amicable adjustment of the submarine controversy will be materially lessened in proportion to the publicity given the exchanges taking place between the two governments.

Contrary to the rosate predictions of some, it is believed, it is understood that the note from his government which he presented to Mr. Lansing covers merely one more step and not the whole way to a complete settlement of the submarine issue. However, the German ambassador feels he has every reason to retain his optimism as to the eventual outcome of the controversy, while Secretary Lansing has repudiated pessimism attributing to him a feeling of pessimism.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments. This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

The impression now prevails that the German government can bring about a position of complete satisfaction of the American position. Berlin is not ready, it is said, to yield to the extent of complete withdrawal of the submarine commander figuring in the Arabic case.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

ULTIMATUM SENT TO BULGARIA

Russia Demands That Negotiations With Germany Cease.

THREATENS TO RECALL ENVOY

Dismissal of All German Officers In the Bulgarian Army Within Twenty-four Hours Also Demanded by the Czar—Unlikely That Bulgarian Government Will Recede From Its Attitude.

Petrograd, Oct. 4.—Russia has delivered a formal ultimatum to Bulgaria demanding that Bulgaria immediately cease negotiations with Germany and dismiss all German officers in the Bulgarian army within twenty-four hours. If these demands are not complied with the Russian minister to Sofia will be recalled.

The ultimatum sets forth that the financial negotiations which Bulgaria has been carrying on with Germany and the presence of Bulgarian troops on the Serbian frontier no longer leave any room for doubt respecting the aggressive intentions which that country retains. Russia, continues the document, can not brook any exhibition of hostility towards a Slav nation or towards the enemies of the entente powers. Therefore, if Bulgaria does not withdraw, it is not straightforwardly disavowed by the dismissal of German officers from the Bulgarian ministry of war and from the staff of the army, diplomatic relations between the two governments can no longer be continued.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

Contrary to the rosate predictions of some, it is believed, it is understood that the note from his government which he presented to Mr. Lansing covers merely one more step and not the whole way to a complete settlement of the submarine issue. However, the German ambassador feels he has every reason to retain his optimism as to the eventual outcome of the controversy, while Secretary Lansing has repudiated pessimism attributing to him a feeling of pessimism.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

The new note deals with the question raised in the Arabic case, about which he has already been in correspondence between the United States and the German governments.

This new note is the first result of the ambassador's undertaking to break the deadlock threatening the two governments in the Arabic case.

In a sense, the ultimatum is an appeal. "The representative of Russia," it says, "which is bound to Bulgaria by the imperishable memory of her liberation from the Turkish yoke, can not sanction by his presence any arrangement for a fraternal partition of the Balkans." Little doubt is felt respecting the consequence of the Russian ultimatum, for it is held to be highly improbable that Bulgaria, having gone so far toward support of Germany, will recede. It is pointed out, in fact, that the Bulgarian government must have realized that just such an ultimatum would be forthcoming and that therefore its significance was already weighed by King Ferdinand and his advisers.

NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS

Brooklyn Minister's Business Ventures Ruin Him Financially.

ASK $60,000 FOR DEATHS

Alleged Miners Lose Lives Through Negligence of Company.

Owenton, Ky. (Special): Two cases for damages aggregating $60,000 were called for trial in the circuit court. Both are actions on tort for $30,000 for the loss of the lives of William Marian and Bailey Hall, who died while at work for the Ohio Lead Mining company at their mines near Gratz from foul and noxious air, when the building at the north of the shaft caught fire and was destroyed in September of last year.

Hall and Marian were, it is said, 500 feet under ground at the time. Access to the shaft became impossible, so that the entombed men were doomed to death. It was only after forty-eight hours that the bodies could be recovered. Help was summoned from the state mining office at Lexington and from federal inspectors at Terre Haute, Ind.

To the plea for damages in the suit in defense of their interests, the defendants set up the plea that death was occasioned through contributory negligence. It is said that certain of the alleged partners deny any interest in the company.

CAN PROSECUTE REBATES

Insurance Men Lose Suit In the Court of Appeals.

Frankfort, Ky. (Special): Life insurance agents accused of rebating premiums may be prosecuted by indictment said the court of appeals in an opinion by Chief Justice Miller, reversing the Franklin circuit court in the case of the commonwealth against F. M. Spiller.

To the plea for damages in the suit in defense of their interests, the defendants set up the plea that death was occasioned through contributory negligence. It is said that certain of the alleged partners deny any interest in the company.

Mr. Douglass is survived by five children. They are: Mr. Charles Douglas and Mrs. R. W. Colyer, of this city; Mr. John Douglas, of Bloomington, Illinois; Mr. Zen Douglas, of Deland, Florida; Mr. Cyrus Douglas, of Seattle, Washington. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago.

The latter, agent for the Ohio National Life Insurance company, was indicted on a charge of rebating a premium on a policy issued to Roy C. Gray. A demurrer was sustained to the indictment on the ground that the statute defining the offense says the fine of $500 is to be "recovered by action in the name of the commonwealth," and the court held it to limit the proceeding to penal action in the name of the commonwealth.

Louisville Detective Has Claim.

Carlsbad, Ky. (Special): M. J. Donahue, a detective of Louisville, filed in the Nicholas circuit a claim for the reward of $300 offered by James T. McCreary for the arrest and conviction of the persons who killed Charles T. Royste, a Nicholas

318 PIANO TUNING and REPAIRING

A. C. MARSHALL
Leader Opera House Orchestra
Richmond, Ky.

DO YOU NOT OFTEN READ OF HEIRS HAVING SUED AN INDIVIDUAL EXECUTOR FOR THEIR SHARE OF AN ESTATE HE HAD MISMANAGED?

WHY DON'T YOU BE A CAREFUL MAN AND TRUST YOUR ESTATE TO OUR TRUST COMPANY? WE ARE A PERMANENT ORGANIZATION. OUR OFFICERS ARE RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS MEN. AFTER YOU ARE DEAD WE WILL LOOK AFTER YOUR BUSINESS FOR YOUR WIFE AND FAMILY JUST AS CAREFULLY AND AS PROFITABLY AS YOU LOOK AFTER IT WHILE LIVING.

MAKE YOUR WILL TODAY.
MAKE OUR TRUST COMPANY YOUR EXECUTORS.

STATE BANK & TRUST COMPANY
RICHMOND, KENTUCKY

"HYPOCRITES."

This most objectionable film which has been running throughout the United States, was played at the Alhambra Theatre in this city last Friday during the day and night, without molestation from the constituted authorities. In fact, a board of censors passed the same. It was patronized by the liberal attendance of the best people of the city.

Perhaps the vulgarity of the show was its least objectionable feature. The tenor of the whole play was a damnable assault on Christianity and society. Even the purity of love did not escape its blight.

A young preacher, floundering in the breakers of his own miserable mistakes and misconceptions of the world, lacking mental poise and unable to see the beauties of the full and even tide of life, uses the talents which God has given him to chisel a nude woman as his conception of Truth. The figure is veiled and at the appointed time, in the presence of a large crowd assembled to do honor to his talents, the veil is removed, exposing its hideous vulgarity. Decency is outraged, purity awed, the people abashed. Indignation fans itself into a furious passion and under its sudden impulse, the people destroy the statue and kill the preacher. The pictures depict the resurrection, the re-incarnation of Truth appearing to the world in the form of a nude woman walking in the woods, always present but ever elusive, like the rainbow to be seen but never to be touched. The preacher and a few faithful worshippers, follow this nude figure, first along the avenues and pleasant roads, then up the rugged mountain sides where the earth breaks with them and rocks fall on and hurt them till at last all have fallen by the wayside but the phantom figure and the preacher. Truth plays a hide and seek game but at last allows the preacher to speak to her. He says, "Since my people will not come to you, will you not come to them?" Consenting, Truth returns to the valley, visits the homes, public halls and places of the people, and rejected by them all.

In the state of Kentucky, we have a constitutional government and this constitution requires that the officers, in the main, shall be selected by secret ballot at a regular election.

CORRUPTIONISTS.

Again the grandjury has been specially instructed to indict election corruptionists. The law requires that such a charge be given after each election. It is not a personal grievance.

Shall this charge fall on deaf ears? Will no attention be paid to it? Shall the law continue to be a farce?

In the state of Kentucky, we have a constitutional government and this constitution requires that the officers, in the main, shall be selected by secret ballot at a regular election.

The incumbent circuit judge charges that the last primary held in this state was a very corrupt one; especially in the twenty-fifth judicial district. It is his purpose to show that such is the case. It is his further purpose to see that suitable punishment is meted out to the offenders.

The efforts of the judge to give the people pure elections, is commendable. Unless the elections are pure, there are no elections. It is merely a matter of dollars against dollars, fraud against fraud and force against force. With corrupt elections, the people have but little voice in a matter that affects them in home and state. Who is to blame for this lamentable condition of affairs?

The answer comes in no uncertain terms. It is the people themselves. It is useless to lay it on the courts. The courts are composed of people selected under the forms of law. If they fail in the discharge of their legal duties, the people can correct it if they want to do so. If they fail or refuse to do so, they have only themselves to blame.

It is well to stop and inquire, "Who is an election corruptionist?" Is it the poor, debased man who sells his vote for a paltry dollar? Is it the ward healer who gets several hundred for his influence? Or is it the big man who sells out for an office? Answering the question, we say that the law makes no distinction. The man who sells for a big fat office is as much of a floater as the man who sells for a dollar. When the courts see fit to go after this class of citizen, then it will find that the small floater will disappear as if by magic. When the buyer and corruptionists are put out of business, then the small floater has no one to corrupt him.

But lets get down to actual facts and see how the continual agitation of this question affects the elections. When a powder magazine is fixed ready for explosion, wise people get away from it. They take no chances. In an election where there is a warning given that election crooks will be punished, people who respect themselves refrain from taking any chances. They turn the election over to men who will take chances. They turn it over to corruptionists who ply their calling, knowing in advance that they have no opposition. Thus it is easy to carry such an

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used, except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage that can be done to the body is great and can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney, Toledo, Ohio, is made of no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, in a bath salt. The Catarrh Cure is sure to get the genuine results. Price 75¢ per bottle. Gold Seal Balsam. Price 75¢ per bottle. Take Balsam Family Pills for constipation. Price 75¢ per bottle.

NEW Auto Bus

The Richmond Transfer Co. has added another Auto Bus and is now prepared to take parties on

Special Trips

to Lexington, Frankfort, Louisville, or any place you want to go, at any time—day or night

Experienced Chauffeur
Rates Reasonable

THE AUTO BUS eets All Trains

Both Day and Night

Richmond Transfer Company

94 TELEPHONE 94

election by fraud and corruption. If the law is not enforced, then the threat to have it enforced has produced the very effect which it was intended to prevent. The continual agitation of punishment for those who deal in election frauds, prevents respectable men from engaging in the pastime of buying votes for very respectable and competent men, thus enabling the election crooks to carry the day and fill the offices with men of their ilk.

The question is put squarely to the grandjury and people. Will you enforce the law or will you allow it to remain a dead letter statute? Will you have pure or corrupt elections?

We take no part as between the excellent gentlemen who stood for election in the recent primary. We make no charges against any man and have no interest in the outcome of the investigation. If it is to be a farce, the sooner the better. If it is to be an investigation in good faith with the hope of results, then dig deep and play no favorites. Do your work early and then adjourn to the last day of the term and if the cases are filed away by the back door process, then go after the officer who does it or allows it to be done. Madison county is tired of the "Statement and filed away" method of trying criminal cases.

Keep your money in circulation by handing us that dollar you owe us.

DEATHS

On Sunday, September 26, Mr. F. M. Riley, one of our worthy and enterprising citizens, died at his home in the eastern portion of the city, after a brief illness. Deceased was a carpenter by trade, a worthy citizen and beloved by a wide circle of friends. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Mr. F. M. Riley, Jr. of Hamilton, Ohio, Mr. George Riley, of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. W. M. Burton, of Paint Lick, all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, after which the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Parks burying ground in the country.

Hauling of all kinds promptly done. Elmer Tate, Irvine street. Phone 783. 4

EASTERN NOTES

(From the Dean's Office)

All the literary societies held their receptions on Monday night. Literary and musical exercises were rendered and some delicious refreshments were served by all five of the regular societies. Many new members were added to the rolls.

On Friday morning the annual election for the Staff of the Student was conducted by Prof. Pullen, Chairman of the Student Committee for the year. The following staff was elected:

Miss Mary Biehn, Editor in Chief. J. R. Shearer, Associate Editor. Miss Bernice McClure, Literary Editor.

Miss Helen Young, Smiles Editor.

J. E. Vickery, Athletic Editor.

R. C. Gibbs, Circulation Manager.

K. L. Kelley, Advertising Manager.

Miss Mary Boggs, Exchange Editor.

Miss Ruth Hoskins and Robert Little, Reporters.

Miss Jennie Mae Lancaster, Corresponding Secy.

Lee Shearer and Miss Miriam Noland, Alumni Editors.

Kenneth Ramey, Model School Reporter.

Leonard Kilburn, Distribution Manager.

Joseph B. Bates, Business Manager.

Miss Marjorie Porte, Art Editor.

The Normal School Community was delightfully entertained on Friday night by The Federal Music Clubs of Richmond.

Very said Instrumental selections were rendered much to the pleasure of the large audience which gathered for the occasion.

Watch Your Children

Often children do not let parents know they are constipated. They fear something distasteful. They will like Rexal laxatives—a mild laxative that tastes like sugar. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

Henry L. Perry.

BUNCED PARAGRAPHS

Fire damaged the Toledo Times building and contents to the extent of $30,000.

Spanish steamer Milian-Carrasco was wrecked near Bilbao, eleven members of her crew being drowned. At Piqua, O., Charles Gardner, forty-four, while repairing a shotgun, which he did not know was loaded, accidentally shot and killed himself.

American Consul Thomas D. Edwards of Juarez was notified of the death of Edward A. Powers, American consular agent at Parral, Chihuahua.

Despondent on account of ill health, Marion Fricker, thirty-eight, London (O.) confectioner, committed suicide. His body was found in the bathroom of his home.

Following his arrest at Galion, O., while attempting to escape with his boot, Edward Roberts confessed to stealing valuables worth thousands of dollars from wealthy people in Marion, Cuyahoga and Galion.

Al Jennings, former outlaw, opened a month's revival in Brooklyn.

Because his wife was a "movie inebriate," John Robertson of Nyack, N. Y., obtained a divorce and custody of their child.

Eighty millionaires are on New York city's personal tax list. Andrew Carnegie and John D. Rockefeller head the list.

The widow of Lewis G. Brown, Somerset (O.) man killed while fighting with the allies in France last June, has been granted a liberal pension by the Canadian government.

Atrey Guerry, Texas, has filed a suit in court of appeals to dissolve the Funeral Association of United States, which operates in Cleveland.

American ship Vincent was destroyed by fire in the North sea. Crew was saved.

At South Norwalk, Conn., a valuable cow ventured into a clover field and was stung to death by bees.

Despondency over financial matters prompted James A. Glasscock to kill his aged mother and himself at their home in Detroit.

A launch filled with G. A. R. visitors in the Potomac was rammed near Washington by the president's barge. Ten sailors on the launch was injured.

Hand-painted fish in New York's East Side markets are worrying health inspectors, who say the coloring conceals decay. The dealers are painting the gills a bright red, denoting freshness.

Lockjaw, developing from a pin scratch, caused the death of Mrs. Joseph Collins at Marion, O.

Miss Lucile Ogle, twenty, of Manchester, O., was drowned in Brush creek in one foot of water.

To escape friends, P. F. Walker, dentist, and Miss Florence Adams of Coshocton, O., were married at midnight.

Twenty-five residences and a business block containing about twenty small stores were destroyed by a fire which swept Suffern, N. Y.

Grover Miser, Elkhart, Ind., fireman on a New York Central train, was killed, and Peter Meyer, Toledo, engineer, was badly injured when their train jumped the track near Woodfield, O.

C. W. Fawcett heads Democratic ticket for mayor of Ottawa, O., in place of T. F. McElroy, who withdrew.

Eighteen-year-old Alice Joyce Borod, "Chicago's America's most recent girl millionaire." She has just come into her father's estate.

At Cleveland, Coulton Houlett, seventeen, carrying mail sacks, was wounded in the leg when a loaded revolver exploded in a pouch.

Four workers were killed and half dozen more injured at Phoenixville, Pa., when a Reading railroad passenger train ran into a score of men in a tunnel.

Because her husband's relatives concealed from her before their marriage that her husband stuttered, Mrs. Marie Locasti of New York has begun suit for divorce.

A great storm caused floods and landslides throughout Italy.

Charles E. Schaff was appointed receiver for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad.

Mr. Schaff is president of the road.

William Englehart, fifteen, was accidentally shot and killed by his brother James, eighteen, while hunting near their home at Lithopolis, O.

Fred Wilson, chief of Jamestown (N. Y.) fire department, and Fred S. Peace of Pittsburgh, an alarm system salesman, were instantly killed in an accident near Butler, Pa.

Fifteen persons were injured when an explosion demolished the dwelling of Tony Tassone at Republic, Pa. None of the injured will die. Traces of dynamite were found in a corner of the wrecked building.

George Dalrymple of Edison, O., was killed in an automobile split at Grant's pass, Oregon.

Mrs. Anna Ruth, twenty-one, was found at her home in Akron, O., with bullet wounds in her breast.

Captain Roert W. Mueller of Milwaukee, noted millitiaman, and his wife were killed, presumably by robbers, in a cottage at Princeton, Wis.

Robbers in New York blackballed Charles Fried, a bank cashier, robbed him of a satchel containing $2,000 in cash, jumped into an automobile and escaped.

American Bible society hopes to raise 1,000,000 nickels with which to purchase 1,000,000 Bibles to send to the soldiers in Europe.

Deputy United States Marshal Bert Walter was shot in the left hand at Columbus when his revolver fell from its holster and was discharged.

Leonard Kilburn, Distribution Manager.

Miss Jennie Mae Lancaster, Corresponding Secy.

Lee Shearer and Miss Miriam Noland, Alumni Editors.

Kenneth Ramey, Model School Reporter.

Leonard Kilburn, Distribution Manager.

Joseph B. Bates, Business Manager.

Miss Marjorie Porte, Art Editor.

The Normal School Community was delightfully entertained on Friday night by The Federal Music Clubs of Richmond.

Very said Instrumental selections were rendered much to the pleasure of the large audience which gathered for the occasion.

Watch Your Children

Often children do not let parents know they are constipated. They fear something distasteful. They will like Rexal laxatives—a mild laxative that tastes like sugar. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

Henry L. Perry.

For Rent

One or two rooms on the Summit. Hot water heat. References. Phone 666. 374.

Please hand us OUR dollar.

39-2

For Rent

One or two rooms on the Summit. Hot water heat. References. Phone 666. 374.

Please hand us OUR dollar.

39-2

For Rent

One or two rooms on the Summit. Hot water heat. References. Phone 666. 374.

TO GOOD PLACES TO GO

THE ALHAMBRA
—and HOMETHE PHOTO-PLAY HOUSE SUPERB
WHERE THE BEST PEOPLE GOTODAY—Famous Players Film Co. present
Two Big Features

Bootle's Baby.

by John Strange Winter and the Famous Players
The Man on the Case
Don't miss this unusual treatFRIDAY—Wm. Fox presents the play of all plays in 6 parts

DR. RAMEAU

with Frederick Perry, Stewart Holmes and Jean Sothern.
A drama you want to see. Based on modern society.
Taken from the play and great novel

SATURDAY

5 Reels of the Best Pictures

• Miss Ward Will Sing

Stolen

Paramount Feature in 5 wonderful parts.
Written by David Belasco.
Coming—"AN ALIEN" in 8 partsThe Insurance
Painted w...See Breck & Evans for Tomato Insurance.
19 ft.
Pure Country Sorghum at Lackey & Todd's.
6 ft.HUADING of all kinds. Spurlin's Livery Stable, 3rd & Irvine, Phone 108.
30 ft.2¢ Stamp Brings any one $1.00 Value,
by return mail. The Manufacturers Co.,
Berea, Ky.
38 ft.Drive in and hitch your horse with Elmer Tate. One price and courteous treatment to all—Irvine street.
40 ft.

FOR SALE—302 acres and a fraction of good, fertile, farming, bluegrass, grazing, meadow and tobacco land on a turnpike within a few hundred yards of a railroad station. Well watered, good residence, two good barns, new churches and convenient to schools.

W. H. MILLER,
In Southern Nat'l Bank, Richmond, Ky.
21 ft.Rooms For Rent.
Collins Street, No. 234. Miss Belle March.
34 ft.

For Rent

The Kentucky Carriage works located on the corner of Water and Second St. Large wareroom with two floors, also a Paint Room and Dry Room. Large Sheet and Office Room in front with Blacksmith shop in the rear. City property of Mrs. John Donelson. Possessions given January 1st, 1916. For particulars, call or address Z. T. Rice, Richmond, Ky.
39 ft.

For Sale Privately.

Ten acres of land with good two-story seven room house, cistern and all necessary outbuildings just outside of city limits, one mile from court house.

Butler Dunn,
Phone Kirkville 21-3.

Maiden Ridge Nursery.

We have all kinds of fruit trees, berries and vines, the finest we have ever grown, for sale this fall at reasonable prices. Send for price list. Phone 100.

G. D. SMITH,
38-4t

Richmond, Kentucky.

Stray Heifers.

Fifteen heifers were permitted by the management of the Madison Stock Yards Co. to break from their pens and wander away last Monday, county court day, six were found on Big Hill pike, and six on Irvine pike. Three are yet unfound, all thought to be deep red, weight about four fifty to five hundred pounds. Any information leading to their recovery will be greatly appreciated and paid for by the undersigned. John Cabell Chenault
40-4t

Killed By Train.

Mr. S. G. Burris, of the Newby neighborhood, and a son of Mr. William Burris, was killed by a freight train at Colby Station in Clark county, Saturday night. Mr. John Hollan, who conducts a blacksmith shop at Minton, and who was with Burris when he was killed, was also injured. The father and two brothers of Burris upon learning of the fatal accident went to Winchester and had the body prepared for burial. The body was interred in Friendship burying ground Sunday afternoon.

Later: Hollan died Monday night without regaining consciousness and was buried Tuesday afternoon at Newby.

MARRIED

Mrs. Leslie Turpin and Miss Mary Lee Douglas, prominent young people, surprised their many friends by tying themselves to Lexington and being married at the Phoenix Hotel on last Thursday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Douglas, of this city, is highly cultured, and a most winsome and attractive young lady. The groom is a young man of sterling worth and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Turpin, of near this city. Both the bride and groom are popular young people and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends. The happy couple spent several days in Louisville at the Seabank, after which they returned to this city, and will be at home to their friends on Second street after October 7. The Climax-Madisonian, with a legion of friends, extends hearty congratulations.

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Genevieve Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conway, of Winchester, to Mr. Jerry Keller, of Richmond, was made Sunday morning in St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Winchester. Miss Conway is an attractive young lady and popular with all who know her. Mr. Keller is a mail carrier in this city and a splendid fellow. The wedding will be solemnized about the middle of October.

At a party given Thursday afternoon at the home of T. L. Maupin, the engagement of his daughter, Bertha Frances, and John Muffley was announced, the wedding to take place in the near future. The dining room was decorated in yellow and white, covers being laid for twelve young ladies. In the center of the table on a large lake stood a bowl filled with yellow and white Dahlia, from which ran yellow ribbons to each plate, where the favors were dished, bearing the card of the prospective bride and groom. A luncheon was served and the "cat" was let out of the bag!—Shirley (Illinois) Times.

LOST—Large Cameo pin—Reward
Mrs. G. D. White.
40-2t

Badly Hurt.

Mr. N. B. Howard, of this county, went over to Lexington on business last week, and while there had the misfortune to fall from a window fourteen feet and hurt himself very severely. He was brought to his home and is now resting well. It will be some time before he will be able to be out,

Little Folks Shop and Gift Shop.

Misses Laura Bright, Margaret Francis and Merritt Jones will open on Saturday, October 9, in the Hobson building next to post office, a shop for little folks. There will be an exhibition and for sale lots of things dainty and useful to delight the hearts of the little people and their fond mothers as well. 40-2t

Four Bounced

Four students at the Kentucky State University were expelled last week for alleged "hazing" in cutting Freshmen's hair. The four sophomores expelled, it is said, were recognized by one of the victims. He resisted and was so badly beaten he had to be taken to the hospital. There was talk of a strike on the part of the students because of the dismissal of the four sophomores, but President Barker stood pat and the better judgment of the students prevailed. President Barker is to be congratulated for his firm stand against hazing.

Church Notes

Rev. W. S. Taylor, of this city, and Rev. English of Berea, are holding a protracted meeting at the Baptist church at Buckeye in Harrard county.

The Presbyterian, Christian and Baptist church of this city united with the Methodist church in the Sunday evening meetings. The object was to welcome to this city the new Methodist Pastor, Rev. M. S. Clark. The service was a most enjoyable one. Revs. Barnes, Telford and Reynolds were warm in their kindly greetings and felicitations.

Rev. Clark delivered an unusually strong sermon on "Sin." His offering shows that he is a fearless man of God.

Richmond is to be congratulated on the strength of its ministry. The devil will be cornered here this year if the people heed.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

The SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER will be administered in connection with the morning service next sabbath.

Among the speakers who will be heard at the meeting of the Synod of Kentucky next week, will be Dr. Ganfield, President of Center College, whose address on Thursday evening will be followed by a stereophonic lecture by Rev. Dr. H. F. Williams.

Wednesday afternoon and evening will be devoted to conference on Sabbath School work, at which time some interesting speakers will be heard.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Subject Sunday morning: "The Tragic and Sublime in the Cross." Evening a special service will be announced later. Watch for it. All invited.

At the First Christian church Turley's men met Tuesday night, for an open session. About fifty were present. Fourteen of the good women of the church prepared an elegant dinner and served it beautifully. Rev. E. B. Barnes presided as master of ceremonies. Speeches were made by Prof. Stott, Dr. McDowell, R. E. Turley and Col. T. E. Baldwin. This class will attend in the body the Sunday night services of the church.

All heads of families are requested to buy the Golden Sun coffee and save the coupons, with which to pay for the handsome coffee urn. A vote of thanks for the splendid supper was given by the ladies and Mrs. R. E. Turley made a neat little speech on behalf of the ladies. A telephone was ordered to be put in for the benefit of the ladies aid at the church. Medesmes James Dykes, J. A. Moore, James H. Allman, Elmer Deathridge, C. F. Higgins, S. J. McLaughlin, Elmer Tate, Joe W. Arnold, Joe Boggs, W. S. Broadus, M. M. Dickerson, R. E. Turley and S. P. Deatherage prepared and served the dinner.

Rev. Fred Sanders and V. L. Moore of this county have just concluded a very successful revival at Nonesuch in Woodford county. 75 persons united with the church.

Rev. Green is holding a revival at the Friendship Baptist church in this county and much interest is manifested in the same.

Rev. Fred Sanders commenced a series of meetings at the Slick Rock Christian Church last Tuesday night. He is just starting in the ministry and gives promise of a brilliant future. He is a son of Thomas Sanders of Delphi.

Avoid the chilly morning by using Cole's Hot Blast stove Heaters. They prevent colds and sickness. Oldham &amp; Harber, Agents.

Dr. Wood Speaks.

Dr. J. E. Wood, a colored divine and editor of the Torchlight, whose residence is Danville, delivered an address at the court house on Saturday night for the Republican ticket. There was a goodly number of the colored brethren present and only thirteen white persons by actual count.

Again Flooded.

A heavy rain passed over the southeastern section of the county on Monday afternoon, doing considerable damage to roads, bridges and crops. Paint Lick was again flooded, the crest of the flood being almost as high as that attained last summer, when great damage was done to that thriving little village. Considerable damage was done by the rain in many parts of the county, especially in the southern and eastern sections, and many roads became impassable in many places owing to the high water mark reached by creeks and branches.

Circuit Court In Session.

The October term of the Madison Circuit Court convened Tuesday morning, Judge J. M. Benton presiding. In his instructions to the grand jury, Judge Benton dwelt on gambling and vice of all kinds, but his principal topic was directed toward election frauds. He read the instructions delivered by Judge Kerr to the Fayette county grand jury, and also the charge of Judge Gregory, of Louisville, to the Jefferson county grand jury. Taken as a whole, the instructions delivered by Judge Benton to the Madison county grand jury, pitched upon a high plane and he demands be commended by every thinking person.

The following gentlemen were held in grand jury: T. M. Oldham, W. D. Tate, Jake Baxter, A. J. Bush, W. Sanders, W. H. Park, Nat Cotton, L. Hamilton, T. E. Reid, Deatherage, L. M. Minter, and C. Gentlemen com-

He was made a Mason in Waco Lodge about 1876, but many years ago he transferred his membership to Richmond Lodge.

Brethren, he is gone from us, but his memory still remains. Let us cherish it and resolve to imitate his virtues, because his life was an exemplification of all that is best in our Order.

Further, that this minute shall be spread on our record, sent to his family, and published in one of our local papers.

Bob R. Burnam
James Allman Committee
Geo. D. Simmons
Noland.

Delivers Fine Address

Hon. James D. Black, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, spoke to a large and enthusiastic crowd at the court house in this city Monday at 2 o'clock. It was court day and a large crowd was in town and the lower court room was packed to overflowing. Many women were present to hear this distinguished son of Kentucky. Judge Black is an able and entertaining speaker and charmed all who heard him. He dealt upon the issues of the campaign and defended in a masterly style the principles and actions of the Democratic party and was roundly applauded. Judge Black has many friends in this community and he will add much strength to the ticket throughout Eastern Kentucky.

Give Elmer Tate a call for anything in his line. Phone 793. 4-tf

In Demand

Roscoe Gilmore Stott, head of the English Department of the State Normal, has received a somewhat flattering invitation.

He has been asked by President Hendricks, of the Missouri State Normal, at Warrensburg, to come to that institution and give a special series of lectures on English. This institution is one of the greatest State Normals in the country. It is a pioneer in educational matters and has an enormous faculty and student body. Mr. Stott will accept. He will probably go to the fall meeting of the Boone-

Mr. Stott will attend a meeting of the State Committee of the Y. M. C. A. of which he is a member, at Lexington next Friday evening. Mr. Bergthold, the State Student Secretary, will be host at a dinner to the committee to be given at the Phoenix. On the evening of the 14th Mr. Stott has been asked to address the Brotherhood of the First Methodist Church of Georgetown. This organization will have as guests the churchmen of all the churches in the city and the men students of Georgetown College. The women of the church will serve refreshments. Mr. Stott will use his chautauqua lecture, "The Pillar-Lifter."

On last Sunday evening Mr. Stott spoke before a large audience at Sullivan Hall, addressing the Y. W. C. A., using the unique topic, "Pigs."

House For Rent.

Three room cottage on Big Hill ave. Good garden and all necessary outbuildings. All in good repair. Mrs. E. Witt, East Main street. 40-11

Cattle Sales.

Mr. J. W. Williams and Rob. Goins sold to H. B. Hanger some cattle at 73.

Kills Scott County Man.

New Chenault, colored, a well known character of this county, shot and killed Luther Hammons, a colored man, near Donerail, in Scott county, Saturday morning, using a double-barreled shotgun. Details of the tragedy are meager. Chenault skipped and has not been apprehended by the officers.

Big Cattle Deal

Mr. Alex Gibbs, of this county, weighed up last week 123 head of cattle, averaging 1,530 pounds, at $5.50. Mr. Joe Bales, local buyer, was the purchaser. Mr. Gibbs had been feeding these cattle for some months and had put on an average of 40%. This is the largest and best bunch of cattle put on the market by a single individual for some time. The cattle as whole weighed 201,960 pounds, and brought the magnificent sum of $17,168.00.

Court Day.

Monday was county court day and a large number of cattle, horses and mules were on the market. Cattle brought good prices and there were nearly 5,000 head on the market, but trading was not quite so brisk as during September court day. The greater portion of the stock was feeders and add of an inferior quality. Prices ranged from $7 to $10.

The horse and mule market was unusually quiet, although a large number were here, but very little trading and selling took place. Rain greatly interfered with the buying and selling and made it very disagreeable for the large crowd present.

Memorial of Richmond Lodge

No. 25, F. &amp; A. M.

On Thursday, September 29th, Alfred Douglas passed away in his eighty-third year, after a brief illness.

Brother Douglas was born in Madison county and lived the whole of his long life in this county. He was the last of his generation. He had an illustrious name and possessed many of the sterling qualities of his race. A gentleman always, quiet and dignified in his bearing, firm and yet considerate. A man of positive convictions, both political and religious, yet absolutely tolerant towards others. He always stood for the right as he saw it. For years Brother Douglas was a contractor. He had dealings in many ways with many men, and never was a man known to charge him with a failure to do his work or to keep his word. His name became a synonym for integrity and square work.

Surely, as the wise man hath said, "A good name is to be desired above great riches."

His last work was the superintending of the erection of the new Christian Church, of which religious organization he had been for many years a faithful member. In this he took great pride. He loved this church as his church, and the building he knew was to stand as a monument for years to come.

He was made a Mason in Waco Lodge about 1876, but many years ago he transferred his membership to Richmond Lodge.

Brethren, he is gone from us, but his memory still remains. Let us cherish it and resolve to imitate his virtues, because his life was an exemplification of all that is best in our Order.

Further, that this minute shall be spread on our record, sent to his family, and published in one of our local papers.

Bob R. Burnam
James Allman Committee
Geo. D. Simmons
Noland.

Style-Craft

The model illustrated above is same as shown in the October issue of the Ladies' Home Journal. Chic and natty, the season's smartest fashions in STYLE-CRAFT garments are here for your inspection.

No second glance is required to establish in your mind the superb quality of garments in both style and fabric.

© No better time than today to see these nobby STYLE-CRAFT models.

E. V. ELDER

The following gentlemen com-

He was made a Mason in Waco Lodge about 1876, but many years ago he transferred his membership to Richmond Lodge.

Brethren, he is gone from us, but his memory still remains. Let us cherish it and resolve to imitate his virtues, because his life was an exemplification of all that is best in our Order.

Further, that this minute shall be spread on our record, sent to his family, and published in one of our local papers.

Bob R. Burnam
James Allman Committee
Geo. D. Simmons
Noland.

Style-Craft

The model illustrated above is same as shown in the October issue of the Ladies' Home Journal. Chic and natty, the season's smartest fashions in STYLE-CRAFT garments are here for your inspection.

No second glance is required to establish in your mind the superb quality of garments in both style and fabric.

© No better time than today to see these nobby STYLE-CRAFT models.

E. V. ELDER&lt;/

STAR CHEWING TOBACCO

LEADING BRAND OF THE WORLD

"Cheer Up, Brother.
Take a Chew of STAR
and Forget It."

THEY'LL never "get your goat" if you have a chew of STAR in your cheek. You "forget it" the minute you set your teeth on the juicy STAR plug.

The naturally sweet leaf in STAR is developed to an even deliciousness throughout. This is retained to the last chew by the three-quarter inch thickness that can't dry out like a thin plug. And every STAR plug is always a full 16 ounce pound.

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

If your work keeps you from smoking—chew STAR. If you're smoking too much or chewing too strong a tobacco—change off to mild, mellow STAR.

16 oz. Plugs      10c Cuts

Laggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

STAR was awarded the Grand Prize at the San Francisco Exposition, and is the only chewing tobacco that has ever received this highest possible award.

Notice of Election

Madison County Court.
George R. Adams, &
On Notice of Election
Petition

Notice is hereby given that there will be an election held in the above styled action, on the second day of November, 1915, in the Waco Voting Precinct of Madison county, Ky., to take the sense of the legal voters on the question whether or not cattle or any species thereof, shall be permitted to run at large on the public roads of said College Hill Voting Precinct.

This September 20, 1915.
R. B. Terrill, Clerk,
Madison County Court.

Taxes Now Due.

County and State taxes are now due. Penalty of 10 per cent will be added if not paid by December 1st. No deviation from this rule. It is the law and will be strictly enforced. Don't allow the penalty to be added and then blame your sheriff. Van B. Benton, Sheriff. 37-11

Notice of Election

Madison County Court.
E. A. Bogie, &
On Notice of Election
Petition

Notice is hereby given that there will be an election held in the above styled action, on the second day of November, 1915, in College Hill Voting Precinct, in Madison county, Ky., to take the sense of the legal voters, upon the question whether or not cattle or any species thereof shall be permitted to run at large on the public roads of said College Hill Voting Precinct.

R. B. Terrill, Clerk,
Madison County Court.

For Sale Privately.

A nice home on Woodland avenue, modern built and all modern improvements, bath room, electric light etc. Has eight or ten rooms, buggy house and stable, room for horse and cow. All in a very desirable home. Apply to S. Neville Moberly or N. B. Deatherage, Phone 62. 7-11

Bit By Copperhead

Mr. John Allin of High Bridge, while about the work on his place several days ago, was bitten on the foot by a copperhead snake, which got away. His foot and leg began to swell shortly afterward until it finally became about twice its normal size and Mr. Allin suffered intense pain. The physicians in attendance feared the member would have to be amputated in order to save Mr. Allin's life, and several met there for the purpose of performing the operation yesterday morning. As the Herald went to press a message from High Bridge stated that after a thorough examination it was decided not to remove the leg at present, but the foot was split open and an effort will be made to drain the snake's poison out in that way, and if it is successful Mr. Allin's leg will not have to be amputated. His friends hope that his recovery will be sure and soon.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Terms made known on day of sale.
Good, Juicy Steaks. Lackey & Todd,
Phone 62. 7-11

HINTS FOR FALL WORK IN THE GARDENS

If the Cabbages Are Slow About Heading or the Heads Lack Firmness, Sprinkle With Salt and Water.

If the garden has been thoroughly cultivated early in the season, there is little weeding to be done. Yet, a few autumn weeds will strive for supremacy unless conquered. One of the most persistent now, as earlier, is the chickweed, which grows in such dense masses as to choke out everything else. Keep it cleaned out. If thrown into a pile it will be decomposed in a few weeks into a light soil, rich in humus.

If an early frost catches the beans before they are quite ripe, shell, scald, and dry, and they will keep during the winter.

An old blanket, papers or straw used in protecting the tomatoes from the first frost may prolong them through weeks of good weather yet to follow.

If the cabbages are slow about heading, or the heads lack firmness sprinkle with salt and water. This will also tend to keep the worms down.

If a few cabbages get too large for ordinary use, before you discover them, pare, slice in cross sections an inch thick, soak in salt water a few hours, and make into sweet pickles. They are delicious.

A few rows of strawberries along the edge of the garden will not require much extra labor, and they will add greatly to the luxuries of farm life. One man, who tried the experiment of seven rows last year, reports seven bushels of berries this season.

Because you have plenty of land do not think it is of no value. Have you used your garden to the utmost capacity? Intensive gardening has already come where there is most profit in the occupation. If you have not applied this principle, see how to get more out of the ground next year.

Dandelions are coming into general use in America for salad greens. The flavor is greatly improved by blanching.

Autumn bulb planting will soon be here; make an early selection of the ones you want, thus securing the best specimens.

Planting is not to be done until the late frosts, when the beds now in use will be unoccupied and ready for the bulbs.

Beds planted this autumn will begin flowering almost before the snow disappears in the spring. This is a good time to thoroughly clean the greenhouse, to put in new glass where needed, repot and paint the roof, and look out for leaks.

Plant sweet peas in the open ground next November and thus secure an early crop of flowers next year.

Beautiful Hair, a Joy Forever.

If you have a beautiful head of hair, try to keep it. If you have not, try to get it. Meritol Hair Tonic keeps the scalp clean, promotes a healthy growth of beautiful hair, and keeps it soft and lustrous. Try it. Price 50c and $1.00 Madison Drug Store. Exclusive Agency Adv.

Bond Issue Carried.

Last Thursday the voters of Lexington and Fayette county, at a special election, approved the proposition to authorize the Fiscal Court to issue $300,000 in 20-year serial bonds with which to construct and reconstruct the roads of the county. Twenty six votes more than the two-thirds required by Sec. 157 Kentucky Constitution were polled. In the city of Lexington the returns showed that the voters were overwhelmingly in favor of the proposition to bond the county for good roads. The seventeen precincts, outside of the city, however, largely out down their majority.

Before Inquisitors.

Judge W. R. Shaeckel, Democratic nominee for Circuit Judge, Mr. D. B. Shaeckel, his brother; M. R. R. Burnam, cashier of the Madison National Bank; John W. Crooke, cashier of the City's National Bank; Mr. Paul National, cashier of the Southern Bank; and Mr. R. E. Shirley, cashier of the Bank & Trust Company, were witnesses before the Clark county grand jury last Wednesday in the recent August primary. Judge Shaeckel was in a grand jury room fifty minutes and was smiling. It is unofficially stated that none of the gentlemen before the inquisitors were able to give any light on the subject.

Oldfashioned New Orleans Molasses & Laclek & Todd's. Phone 62. 7-11

Public Sale — OF — FARM

We will offer for sale to the highest bidder, on the premises, 1 mile north of Red House, Ky., on the Otter Creek pike and Boone Highway (now under construction) on

Saturday, October 9, 1915

at 10 O'clock A.M.

Our Farm Containing 175 Acres

This farm is well improved and has plenty of shade and water, two never failing springs, a nine-room dwelling house and two tenant houses, and the best 15 acre tobacco barn in the locality. A desirable farm home for any one. A good neighborhood, close to churches and schools, 1 mile from depot and on rural route.

This farm will be sold in two tracts and then as a whole. First tract includes about 45 acres and a 4-room ten acre house; second tract of 130 acres with dwelling house, barn and tenant house. If farm is not sold, it will be rented. Parties interested can come and look this farm over.

Terms made known on day of sale.
E. M. & Gentry Jones
RED HOUSE, KY.

Personal

Phone 638 or 659 for all personal items.

Mrs. J. W. Smith spent Thursday in Lexington.

Mrs. E. T. Burnam returned Friday night from Cincinnati.

Mrs. H. B. Hanger was the guest of Lexington friends the past week.

Miss Robinson, of Winchester has been the guest of Miss Johnnie Azbill.

Mr. W. W. Pigg, is able to be out after his recent illness.

Mrs. John McKinney, of Lexington, has been the guest of Mrs. E. V. Elder.

Miss Sarah Stone Walker, of Greenville, Miss., is visiting Mrs. W. W. Watts.

Mrs. G. E. Lilly spent the week-end with her daughter, Miss Austin Lilly in Lexington.

Dr. R. L. Tilford returned Friday from Somerset where he attended the Presbyterian.

Mrs. Temple Martin, of Conway, spent the week with her sister, Mrs. John C. Chenault.

Mrs. Jake Collins has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Burke, at Junction City.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. May Collins, has been very ill but is now improving.

Mr. Zena Douglas, of Bloomington, Ills., attended the funeral of his father, Mr. Alfred Douglas, last week.

Miss Nancy Haden left Tuesday for Washington City, where she will be in school with Mrs. George White.

Mr. and Mrs. David Parrish, of Bourbon county, are visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Miss T. Long, of New Orleans, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. J. Taylor, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. Harry Bybee, has returned to his home in Richmond, after a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. A. Myers.—Louisville Times.

Little Miss Dove Parrish, who has been very ill, is now convalescent, and her friends rejoice to know she will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnold, Mr. Franklin Deatherage and Miss Mary Allen Deatherage motored to Crab Orchard Sunday.

Mrs. E. B. Barnes, who has been quite sick for two weeks, is now much improved, and her friends welcome her out before many days.

Messrs. Lister Witherspoon and Coleman Warford, two of Lawrenceburg's hustling young merchants, were visitors in this city Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Jas. M. Rowlet, a well known citizen of Caleas neighborhood, has been seriously ill at P. A. C. Infirmary for several weeks. His family and friends have doubts as to his recovery.

Mr. William Benton left Thursday for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he will enter the University of Michigan. He has received an appointment and will enter West Point next June.—Winchester Sun.

Mrs. J. Helen Marriot, of Richmond, who was called to Elizabethtown, by the death of an aunt, was in the city on yesterday, the guest of her cousin, Mr. H. Z. Churchill, on her way home.—Frankfort Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton and little son, George, Jr., of Galipolis, Ohio, arrived Friday night for a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. Blanton has been suffering with rheumatism for several weeks, but is now greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Wells and daughter, of Frankfort, are visiting relatives in this city. Mr. Wells has been somewhat indisposed for several days and came up to enjoy the fresh air and sunshine of old Madison.

Mrs. Nelson Ross, 419 Laurel St., says:

"My kidneys were irregular in action and I had pains through my back. At times I was nervous and dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Middleton's Drug Store, soon made me feel better in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ross had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

Roll of Honor.

West Union School Division No. 4, District No. 1. Roll of Honor for the third month ending Sept. 24, 1915.

Byron Parsons, Homer Purkey, Reuben Lambert, Kirby Edward Fowler, Waldo Pitts, Carl Pitts, James Williams, Charles Hulett, Lewis Karp, Edgar Byrd, Charles Huff and Thomas Taylor, Clara Williams, Nannie Huff, H. Todd, Grace Parsons, Effie Humphrey, Nancy Ogg, Elizabeth Allen, Matilda Scott, Ethel Parsons and Jessie Kirby.

Miss Sue Scriven spent the weekend with relatives in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall spent Sunday in Richmond with relatives. Mrs. Maggie Tipton has returned to her home in Richmond, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Zena Bruce.—Winchester Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Smith and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Owens, motored to Richmond for the day Sunday. John R. Gibson, of Richmond, was in Somerset for a brief stay Friday. Mr. Gibson is a prominent business man of his home town, and his father was the late William Gibson; an uncle of Mrs. J. M. Richardson and Joe H. Gibson, of this city.—Somerset News.

Dr. Chas. D. Anderson, who for the past five years has been with the H. L. Perry Drug store, of this city, left last Thursday for Georgetown, to take the management of the Thompson Pharmacy. Mr. Anderson recently passed the Ohio State Board and the Kentucky State Board of Pharmacy with high honors. He is a worthy young man and his numerous friends wish him success.

Captain Carlo Brittain, of the U. S. N., was a welcome visitor to the home of his boyhood Monday as the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. J. Hoskins. A number of old friends called during the evening to pay respects and the day was pleasantly spent greeting friends and acquaintances. Captain Brittain is commander of the ship Michigan, and left Richmond for Washington, D. C., till the ship is busy with naval affairs on a two year tour, where he will enter Pineville Cliffs in coast defense.

Additional info—See page 4
Best of Groceries—See page 4

The McGaughey Studio
Main Street
Phone 52

See the New Designs

&lt;p

THE CITY

GOOD STREET LIGHTING
IN AMERICAN CITIES.

Development in America Has Been Marvelous In Past Quarter Century.

Around the world progressive American cities are noted especially for good street lighting. It is not the White Ways of the big cities that deserve this comment as much as the second and third cities, like Syracuse, Scranton, Rochester, Schenectady, Toledo and Denver, where street lighting is the lure which draws purchasers to the city markets from distances within a radius of more than 100 miles. Street lighting is the barometer of the city's growth—the more lighting you see the more you are certain that the city is

A MODERN STREET LIGHT.

This expression is not original. It is the first test of a city's capacity for new population, new factories, new industries always estimated by the capitalist.

In the last twenty-five years the growth of street lighting in American cities has not been short of marvelous. The strides in brightening up thriving municipalities today cannot be measured. The great electric companies are kept constantly on the move, building power and light plants and installing the latest systems throughout the country. City research reports of recent years all attest to the fact that the better lighted cities are getting the population and, what is most essential for healthy city growth, the business. Without the latter a city will not grow, and without modern street lighting investors of money are not attracted.

Unless the streets are brightly and attractively lighted so that it is both pleasant and safe to be on them at night people find no advantage in living in the city.

City after city has demonstrated the fact that streets which are practically deserted after sundown can be enlivened by the installation of attractive lighting. In any city only those streets which are well lighted are busy after dark. Only a block or two from the "great white way" in New York street which, in comparison with Broadway, are dimly lighted are found nearly deserted, though great crowds are surging along New York's brightly lighted and celebrated thoroughfares.

Good street lighting always pays in dollars and cents. Street lighting which is attractive at night and the equipment which makes a good appearance in the daytime insures a good impression. This good impression attracts desirable business. It increases real estate values and puts new life in streets which would otherwise die at sunset.

A well lighted city is always a clean city. The civic pride aroused by the well lighted streets prevents the accumulation of rubbish in the street. The lights prompt men to "brush up" and keep their premises cleaner.

Orange street lighting encourages the people to live in the surrounding towns to come to the city for the amusements. It also attracts the attention of persons passing through the city and causes them to make favorable comments about the progressive nature of the city.

These comments advertise a city as "active" or "dead," and on the reputation a city has in this respect depends the attraction of new industries and new citizens.

One other very important feature that adds to the city's welfare is the safety that results from well lighted streets. The brighter the lights the less likelihood of theft and other crimes. The more lights a city burns the fewer policemen it needs and the smaller may be its police station.

BEAUTIFUL

VILLAGE PLAYGROUNDS
A MODERN NEED.

They May Be Brought About by Intelligent and Efficient Planning.

SEEING LIFE with JOHN HENRY & George V. Hobart

John Henry on Snapshots

WHEN Aunt Martha gave friend wife that new-fangled camera I had a hunch that the dealers in photographic supplies would be joyously shrieking the return of good times and hotfooting it to the band with the contents of my wallet.

Peaches just grabbed that camera and went after everybody and everything in the neighborhood.

She took about eight hundred views of Uncle Peter's country home before she discovered that the camera wasn't loaded properly, which was tough on Peaches, but good for the bungalow.

Like everything else in this world, picture-pinchin' from still life depends entirely on the point of view.

If your point of view is all right, it's an easy matter to make a four-dollar doghouse look like the villa of a Wall street broker at Newport.

Ten minutes after friend wife had been given the camera she had me set up as a statue all over Uncle Peter's lawn, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

"With Both Feet in a Slushy Little Snowbank Representing Nearly-the-North-Pole."

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down to Doctor Cook, with both feet in a slushy little snowbank representing nearly-the-north-pole.

But when she tried to coax me to climb up on a limb of a tree and stay there till she got the picture of me looking like an owl, I swore softly at the nature asserted itself and I made no attempt to strike this defenseless woman.

When I rubbershoed it back that afternoon friend wife was busy developing her crimes.

The proper and up-to-date caper in connection with taking snapshots these days is to buy a clapping outfit and use the clapper from pit to dome while you are squeezing out pictures of every dearly beloved friend that crosses your pathway.

Friend wife selected a spare room on the top floor of Uncle Peter's home where she could await developments.

A half hour later ghastly noises began to come from that room, and mysterious whispers fell out of the window and bumped over the lawn.

When I reached the front door I

found that the gardener had gone, the garden was a mess, and she was snapping at me like a Spitz dogge at a peddler.

I sat for two hundred and nineteen pictures that forenoon, and I posed for every hero in history from William the Conqueror down

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson II.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 10, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings ii, 1-12; Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text, Ps. xvi, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor—A. O. Stanley
For Lieut. Governor—J. D. Black
For Sec. of State—Barksdale Hammett
For Auditor—R. L. Greene
For Treasurer—Sherman Goodpastor
For C. C. of Appeals—R. W. Keeney
For Sup't. Public In.—V. O. Gilbert
For Comm. of Agri.—M. S. Cohen
For R. R. Commissioner 3rd District
—Howard Stampfer
For State Senator—N. B. Turpin
For Representative—John F. White
For Circuit Judge 25th District
—W. R. Shackelford
For Commonwealth Attorney—
B. A. Crutcher
For Circuit Clerk—Jas. W. Wagers
City Election.
1st Ward
W. W. Broadus and W. L. Leeds
2nd Ward
D. W. Kennedy and Robt. Golden
3rd Ward
William O'Neal and Joe T. Arnold

CANDIDATES' CARDS

INvariably IN ADVANCE
For State and District Offices... $15 00
For County Offices... 10 00
For City and County Dist. Offices... 5 00

We are authorized to announce that the following persons are Democratic candidates for the offices under which their names appear, to be voted for at the primary elections in August 1915 and 1917:

COUNTY OFFICES.

Primary, August 1917.
For REPRESENTATIVE
Walter Q. Park
For SHERIFF

Long Tom Chenault.

G. W. Trim Deatherage.

Simeon Turpin.

P. S. Whitlock.

FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK

Hugh M. Samuels

W. S. Brook

La Rue House

FOR JAILER:

Chas. S. Rogers

G. W. Dearenger.

Aaron Sharp.

FOR ASSESSOR.

W. F. Jarman.

J. W. Barclay.

Jerry B. Chambers.

Cyrus T. Stone.

Greely Barnes

J. S. Gott

A Clogged System Needs Attention.

Are you bilious, dizzy and listless? Dr. King's New Life Pills taken at once seized upon constipation and starts the bowels moving naturally and easily. More than a dozen cases of griping and fits of a clogged system often leads to most serious complications. Poisonous matters and a body poorly functioning need immediate attention. If you wish to wake up to-morrow morning happy in mind and entirely satisfied, start your treatment to-night. 25c. a bottle. Adv'd.

H. C. JAMES

"I buy or sell your house, farm, town lots or any thing else in the Real Estate line. Any business intrusted to him will be promptly and carefully attended to. See him if his services are needed."

I represent iron bound Insurance Companies — remember this.

H. C. JAMES

New GARAGE

Automobile Repairing
Promptly and Reasonably Done

Day 788—Phones—Night 572

R. W. Montgomery, Mgr
Cor. B. and Water Streets

Points of Excellence

- 1 Velvet touch
- 2 Lightest action
- 3 Best tabulators
- 4 Beauty of construction
- 5 Light weight
- 6 Life of Ribbon four times that of other machines
- 7 Turns out more work in one day with less effort than any machine on the market

THE VICTOR
is the Stenographer's Delight. Will TAKE IN your old machine on exchange

Marion Lilly, Agent
RICHMOND, KY

AUTUMN COMFORT.

Servicable Coat to Replace the Silk Sweater.

A NEW DESIGN.

This rough and ready coat supplements summer's light wraps, contrasting their frivolity with its manly correctness. This belt appears to take the normal line—and keep it.

A CRETONNE COAT.

How to Make One at Home That Looks Smart.

The girls at a summer resort where everybody knows everybody else are, as a rule, very clannish and dress as much alike as peans. The minute one of their number appears wearing something a little out of the ordinary it is the signal for every other girl to get the same thing, with a slight modification perhaps.

Instead of resenting the fact that you are "copied," you "sort 'em up with pride" that they like your hat, frock or coat well enough to want others like it. When I first noticed this fact I resolved to be the exception to the rule and not be a "copy cat," but this year my resolution was broken. The cause of my fall from grace was Olive Howell's cretonne coat.

She wore it one evening to the Camp Meeting, looking over a white lingerie frock, and it seemed such a practical summery garment and so simply made that I just couldn't resist the temptation to duplicate it.

Mother bought a generous supply of cretonne and chintz before we came here to redecorate the cottage, and there were yards and yards left. So I had a vision of Cicely "tossed out" in a coat made from the leavings of the house. I made one from the scraps left from the dress folds about the mother's room.

Olive lent us her coat to use as a pattern, and we soon had ours well under way. It had to be cut rather like a smock, hanging full from the shoulders to form deep folds about the hem. I made mine slightly different from Olive's by shortening the coat in front and back, and adding a collar instead of a rounded one. Just by way of a little contrast I used plain cream colored cretonne for the belt, cuffs and collar, fastening the belt with a flat button covered with the plain material.

The sleeves caused me a lot of trouble, for I had cut them too wide at the armhole without gathering them a trifle. This fullness seemed to spoil the coat, so I had to rip them out after having finished them with three rows of machine stitching and cut them small.

Then I added a patch pocket to one side and strapped all the inside of the coat on a neat appearance.

Olive's coat is fastened with white frogs made of braid, but as I had nothing of the sort here I had to improvise fastenings from bullet buttons of white porcelain rimmed from my linen frock and narrow strips of plain cretonne. I attached a button to each end of a string and slipped it through the buttonholes embroidered on each side of the front. Five of these fasteners were needed to close the coat.

There is no end to the wear one can get from a coat of this type, for whenever they become soiled soap and water will make them like new. —A Colter Girl.

The request of the young man to be permitted to look for Elijah lest the spirit of the Lord might have taken him to some mountain or valley was finally granted by Elisha, though he knew how vain it would be. When Enoch was taken he also was sought for, but was not found, as we learn from Heb. xi, 5. What a search for the missing ones there will be when the church is taken, but not one shall be found. Yet as truly as Elijah was seen with Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration about 900 years later, so when Christ, who is our life, shall appear we shall appear with Him in glory (Cor. iii, 4) when He shall return to the earth, and set His feet upon the Mount of Olives, fulfilling the transfiguration foreshadowing. The constant expectation of being caught up to meet the Lord in the air will tend to separate us from this present evil age.

—O.

A Forgetting Post.

Arthur Coleridge related that the poet Coleridge once journeyed from Highgate to Holborn to visit a nephew, Sir William H. Coleridge. It was very cold weather, and the poet had on a double breasted waistcoat which met just below his neck. It was discovered that he had no shirt. His nephew remonstrated with him, to which the poet replied, "I'm very sorry, William, very sorry, but I've forgotten my shirt." Upon this Sir William kindly lent his uncle a shirt. "And," said the speaker, "I regret to say that very necessary garment was never returned to its original owner." —London Saturday Review.

It's our dollar and WE NEED IT

Rexall Orderlies

Sick headaches, biliousness, piles and bad breath are usually caused by inactive bowels. Get a box of Rexall Orderlies. They act gently and effectively. Sold only by us at 10 cents.

Henry L. Perry.

Ancient City of Tiflis.
This, which the czar has termed "a pearl of the human crown," was described by Bryce as "a human melting pot, a city of contrasts and mixtures, into which elements have been poured from half Europe and Asia, and show no signs of combining." The description holds good today, for there are said to be seventy languages spoken in the ancient city.

Varicose Veins.
Varicose veins are a dilation and overfilling of the veins, usually of the lower extremities. They are caused by too great pressure of the veins involved or by the weakening of the thin walls. They are brought on by a weak circulation, interference with the return flow by tumors, overloaded bowels, long standing and overstrain.

See Brock & Evans about that Life Insurance policy you ought to have. They have the company.

19-1f

It's our dollar and WE NEED IT

—O.

It's our dollar and WE NEED IT

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Little Mermaid That Longed to Be A Land Child.

"THERE was once a little mermaid who had no brothers or sisters," daddy began.

"Poor child!" the kiddies exclaimed, cuddling closer.

"Over her gleaming white shoulders her beautiful golden hair fell, so curly that even salt waves could not make it look stringy. Her tail was more splendid than a peacock's, for, besides being blue and green, the scales shone in sunlight like plated gold. In fact, she was a princess mermaid.

"When she swam she looked blue like the waves, and when she rested on the beach she took on land colors, green as grass. The hollow between waves was her bed and their fluffy crests her playthings.

"Our little mermaid used to gather pretty seaweeds, all shining wet, and wreath them in her golden curls."

"Was she ever afraid?" the children wanted to know.

"No—but she had no playmates to think of and so thought too much of herself. And now we come very close to the little mermaid's heart—she longed for a brother."

"Why didn't she pray for one?" Evelyn suggested.

"She used to keep so near the beach always, watching for land children, that the beautiful scales on her tail began to grow pale. But when the land children went in bathing where she could reach them their parents always hovered about, frightening her.

"One morning when she was playing in the waves a beautiful child came running down to the sea. He, too, had golden curls, and his garment was of velvet, just like a real prince. Far behind came his nurse, but before she got there he espied the little mermaid.

"'Oh, come out of the waves and play with me!' he shouted. 'I'm lonesome—are you?'

"Now happens that the only earth call that can change a mermaid into a land child is the call of love. The little mermaid hesitated a moment on the beach, but saw that the boy was swiftly made her choice. With a little cry of regret, she threw herself on the beach, when the little prince stopped and took her by both hands his tall faded, changed him two little bare legs in socks; her golden curls over her shoulders turned into a pink linen frock and what were left became a Dutch cut, just like the little prince's."

"Did the little prince take her home with him?" asked Jack.

"Yes. And because he, too, had no brothers and sisters his queen mother kept her. So they played and grew up together, happy ever afterward."

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvana Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

The Kentucky Grain Drill Deposits the Seed in the Ground Right

The Double-run Feed will sow on the smaller side Wheat, Rye, Etc. and on the larger side Peas, Beans, Etc. The Fluted Force-Feed can always be depended on to give the positive feed.

The Speed Transmission gives the operator twenty changes in quantity of seed for each—forty in all.

The Disc Bearings are dirt and grit proof and can be easily oiled.

DOUGLAS & SIMMONS

VICK'S Croup and Pneumonia SALVE

DO IT NOW!

We employ no collectors!

Therefore would appreciate a check at your convenience. We must have money due us.

The only question is

WILL YOU DO IT NOW?

Thank you for your favors.

THE CLIMAX PRINTING CO.

We do First Class Printing Cheap.

AUTO BUS

Will meet all trains. Will call for you and your baggage. Never too busy to serve you

YOUR BUSINESS SOLICITED

JOHN W. AZBILL

Office in rear of Hotel Glyndon

Phones 399 and 710

Scientific Farming

HINTS ON TREE PRUNING.

American Forestry Association Gives Out Some Timely Instructions.

September is the month for pruning trees. Through its official organ, the American Forestry Magazine, the American Forestry Association issues the following instructions:

Always use a pole saw and pole shears on the tips of long branches, and use the pole hook in removing dead branches of the althaus and other brittle trees where it would be too dangerous to reach them otherwise.

Do not "head back" or cut off the top of a tree except where the tree is old and failing, and then under special instructions.

Be as sparing and as judicious in your pruning as possible and do not raise the branches so high as to make the tree look like a telegraph pole.

A WELL PRUNED TREE.

Commence pruning the tree from the top and finish at the bottom.

Make every cut as close and parallel to the trunk as possible.

Your saw must be well set and sharp in order to make the cut perfectly smooth.

Leave no stubs, dead and dying wood or fungus covered branches be hind you.

Do not fail to cover every wound with coal tar, not allowing it needlessly to run down the trunk.

Do not remove several large branches on one tree at a time. They must be removed gradually, the work extending over several seasons.

Prevent tearing the bark off the tree in removing large limbs by first making an "undercut."

Make the cuts on a slant. Some trees, like the elm, sycamore, linden and willow, will stand the process of heading back more easily others, and the poplar is a tree that must be cut back every few years to keep its crown from becoming too tall and unsafe.

When you shorten a branch leave a few twigs at the end in order to draw the sap to the freshly cut wound and thus enable the growing layer under the bark to heal it over.

In trimming small branches or shoots the cut must be made just above a bud.

When several branches come out from the trunk in a whorl they should not all be cut away at the same time lest the tree be girdled. This arrangement of branches occurs most frequently in the coniferous trees.

Lime Not a Fertilizer.

There is a general impression among farmers that lime is a fertilizer. Lime is not a fertilizer. The prime reason for applying lime to the soil is to correct sourness or acidity where such exists.

The legume crops, such as clover and alfalfa, do not thrive on sour soil unless the soil is very rich. Sour soils are not well suited for the development of beneficial bacteria, which are found in the tubercles of these crops.

It is mainly for the purpose of favoring the growth of these bacteria that lime is applied to soils. Ground limestone is the form of lime which is usually cheapest as a soil sweetener.

There are other effects of lime, but most of them are of less importance. Lime tends to make plant food available from the soil, although this is largely through its beneficial effect on the bacteria. In large quantities it tends to make clay soils more friable, but this effect of lime is usually observed only where the freshly water saturated soil is treated. Lime applied in large quantities. Ground limestone has much less effect in this respect.

A fertilizer usually gives a quick response in the crop to which it is applied provided the soil is in need of the plant food added. Lime, on the other hand, usually has a less immediate effect, the benefit being distributed through a number of seasons. On very sour soils, however, where enough lime is added to entirely sweeten the surface of six or seven inches the effect upon crops, particularly clover and alfalfa, is often immediate and striking.—M. F. Miller, Missouri Station.

It is our dollar and WE NEED IT

The Taj Mahal.

The Taj Mahal, at Agra, India, is said to be the most beautiful structure in the world. It was built by Shah Jehan as a tomb for his wife and is of the purest white marble. It shines so dazzlingly in the sun that you can scarcely look at it except in the morning or evening. Every part is inlaid with the most exquisite designs in marble of different colors, the finish being so perfect that the entire building may be said to resemble in the delicacy of its workmanship one of those Chinese caskets of ivory and ebony which are now so common in Europe and also in America.—New York American.

There Is No Question but that indigestion and the distressed feeling which always goes with it can be promptly relieved by taking a Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet before and after each meal. 25¢ a box.

Henry L. Perry.

APPLE BORER CONTROL.

Means by Which Orchardists May Rid Their Trees of This Pest.
(Prepared by the U.S. Bureau of Agriculture department of agriculture.)

"Warning" and painting the trunks of the trees are recommended to owners of apple orchards as efficient methods of dealing with the round headed apple tree borer. A heavy application of some paint that will not injure the trees, but will remain in an unbroken coat on the bark for two or three months, is effective in preventing the female from laying her eggs in the tree and greatly reduces the amount of wormholes, or the removal of the insects with a knife and wire, that must be done.

The round headed apple tree borer, the most destructive of a number of similar pests, lays its eggs in or under the bark of apple trees. After hatching the larvae feed upon the inner bark and wood to such an extent that the tree is seriously weakened or killed. The pest is found over the whole of the eastern portion of the United States and in far west as Nebraska, Kansas and New Mexico. In addition to fruit trees, it feeds on service, crab and mountain ash trees, which makes it advisable for orchardists to remove these varieties for a distance of at least a hundred yards from their orchard.

The female lays her eggs one at a time in an incision she has made in the bark, usually just above the surface of the ground. About fifteen or twenty days later the eggs hatch and the larvae grow and these are nearly an inch and a half in length. They first attack the inner bark, eating out broad, more or less circular galleries and thrusting out through small holes in the bark castings, which form little heaps of reddish wood fragments around the base of the tree. During the winter the borers are quiescent, but early in the following spring they attack the solid wood, while some of them work their way up the trunk. These last spend over winter in the tree and then, having passed through the pupal stage, dig their way out and emerge as adult beetles.

Ordinarily the beetle lives about forty or fifty days. It is about three-fourths of an inch in length, light brown in color above, with two broad white bands joined in front, extending the full length of the back; the under parts and front of the head are white. The females rarely fly any considerable distance, so that if the immediate vicinity of an orchard can be kept free from them there is little danger of serious infestation.

The most common method of ridding an orchard of these pests is to cut away the bark sufficiently to trace the burrows made by the borer. A hooked wire is then inserted into the burrow and the insect pulled out. If made with care the wound in the tree caused by this process will heal readily. The castings at the base of the tree serve as an indication of the presence of the borers. Where the burrows are curved or obstructed, some way so that the wire cannot be inserted, cotton batting dipped in carbon bisulphide should be inserted into the hole then plugged with moist earth. The fumes from the carbon bisulphide will penetrate all parts of the burrow and kill the borer.

In addition to worming, as this process is called, paint is often used to prevent the beetles laying their eggs. Pure white lead and raw linseed oil, mixed rather thick, will not injure the trees, and when applied to young, smooth bark will form a protective coat during the egg laying season. It is probable that this is a more effective method than wrapping the trees with building paper, cotton batting, cloth or other materials sometimes used for this purpose. Before painting, however, the earth should be removed from the base of the tree for a depth of from three to four feet. The surface of the trunk thus exposed should be first scraped and painted and the earth then replaced. This is necessary, for the beetle sometimes lays her eggs under the bark.

These take their name. Such gardens, though partially devoted to vegetable raising, should also be well laid out with flower beds, and the whole garden city should be subject to such regulations as will insure sufficient attention being given to the gardens to produce the intended appearance. Grass plots, trees, hedges, shrubbery and arbors should be in abundance both in the front and in the rear of the houses. The neglect of the residents should not be allowed to mar the appearance of the city.

The houses may be quite simple and compact in design, but they should all be individual in character and no means the frightful rows of boxes, all exactly alike, which are put up for workmen's houses in most rural or suburban places devoted to such purposes.

The economical design of the buildings in the garden city for streets and alleys should be laid out with in easy reach of transit facilities, and natural advantages of site should be seized whenever possible to give individuality and charm to the plan.

The sanitary provisions of the garden cities should be carefully carried out, and the details should be simple, but solid in construction and as inexpensive as possible.

A garden city is principally a place of residence, and it should have as far as possible, only those of the highest moral character provided. A school may be the only building of a public character.

In garden cities, however, which are larger and located in a more or less isolated position the suburban character is lost, and they become small cities and should be accordingly provided with a great number and variety of stores and public buildings.

The city may have its own civic organization, with schools, a library, churches, museum, theater and the like, and be a complete civic unit.

Garden cities have met with greater success in England than anywhere else save, perhaps, in America, and yet although a greater number and variety of them are now in process of formation in America.

The principal English garden cities are Port Sunlight, near Liverpool; Bourneville, near Birmingham; and Letchworth, near London, while the leading German city is Helleman, near Dresden. The numerous workingmen's colonies in Germany, which first began to be founded about 1863, are earlier prototypes of the present garden cities, but on a less comprehensive scale and with less open ground.

New York's Earthquake.

The "New York earthquake" occurred Aug. 10, 1884. It was a terrific earthquake through New England and the middle states, its center of intensity being in the villages of Amityville and Jamaica, N. Y. The walls of the Presbyterian Sunday school at Jamaica were cracked in two places, one to two inches wide, from the roof to the foundations, and the walls of a house in Amityville were so cracked that it was possible to lay a broomhandle in the openings. New York, like a great part of the country, also felt the great "Charleston earthquake" of Aug. 31, 1866. New York received this shock at 9:34 in the morning.

Discovery of the Amazon.

The Amazon river was discovered from the west, in spite of its being the largest body of water emptying into the Atlantic. A party of Spanish conquistadores reached its headwaters after an unspeakably difficult passage of the Andes. Then they built a boat and floated down, later to navigate along the coast to the Caribbean settle-

PLANNING OF GARDEN CITIES

Workingmen's Homes That Are Economical and Sanitary.

SIMPLE AND ATTRACTIVE.

These Have Met With Great Success In England, While Also the Idea Has Been Taken Up In Germany and Elsewhere—Rents Are Low and Ownerships Encouraged.

By Frank Koester, consulting engineer, New York, author of "Modern City Planning and Maintenance."

The garden city in its best form is a well organized development, in which from 100 to 500 homes make up a unit, which is intended to grow little if any larger. When additional demand springs up for quarters a new garden city is formed elsewhere, and thus the identity of the existing one is preserved indefinitely, and the residents, in the expectation of spending their lives in their own homes, have every incentive to embellish them and keep their grounds in the best possible condition.

The garden city in plan should be laid out in the simplest, yet most attractive manner. There being no traffic of any consequence the streets should be planned with the degree of irregularity which insures charm. Some of the streets should be winding, while the straight ones should have suitable terminals. Each house should be provided with a spacious garden, as it is from the gardens that such force of Habit.

The sermon was long and prosy, and the tired telephone girl was enjoying a little nap. The preacher ended his discourse and announced:

"We'll sing hymn No. 432—four-three-two."

The tired telephone girl awoke with a start when she heard the number and said in a sweet voice:

"The line is busy."

Sure!

"Scientists now claim that birds know how to make love," remarked the old fogey.

"Well, what of it?" replied the grouch. "So do chickens."

Cheer Up!

When all you do is to sit in the bad, And things look black as night